II. Legal Custody (Decision Making)(Required Provision)

2.1 Joint Legal Custody. Both parents are fit and proper persons to have joint responsibility for the care of the minor child(ren). It is in the best interest of the child(ren) that the parties jointly share in the care of the child(ren). The term "joint legal custody" means that both parents have equal rights and responsibilities regarding their child(ren) and that neither parent's rights are superior to the other parent's.

2.2 Sole Legal Custody. Joint legal custody is not in the best interests of the child(ren). The parent granted sole legal custody has the primary right to decide matters regarding matters of health, education and welfare in the child(ren)'s best interests. The parent not granted sole legal custody may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child(ren) when the child(ren) is in that parent's physical care and control. The grant of sole legal custody to one parent does not deprive the other parent of access to information regarding the child(ren) unless the court shall so order, stating the reasons for that determination.

Sole legal custody is granted to  Mother  Father for the following reasons:

- Agreement of the parents.
- The other parent is unable or should not be allowed to exercise any decision-making.
- There is such a high level of disagreement between the parents that one parent needs to be designated as the primary decision maker for the best interests of the child(ren) to be served.
- There is a danger to the child(ren).

2.21 Restriction of Information Regarding the Child(ren) to Non Legal Custodian.

The  Mother  Father is restrained from access to information regarding the child(ren) for the following specific reasons (such as agreement of the parties or serious danger to the child(ren) stating the specific reason for a determination that the non-custodial parent should be restricted from access to information regarding the child(ren): _____

6.4 Telephone and Mail Contact Between Parent and Child(ren).

Telephone Contact. Each parent is allowed reasonable telephone access to their child(ren) at reasonable hours without interference from the other parent. Telephone contact with a child(ren) should not be used as an opportunity by either parent to discuss issues not related to the child(ren) with the other parent. When telephone contact is attempted to be made with the child(ren), the child(ren) should either have direct access to the telephone or the telephone should be given directly to the child(ren) with a minimum of conversation between the parents unless necessary for discussion of matters related to that contact. Any parent shall not refuse to answer the phone, turn off the phone or put call block on the line in order to deny the other parent telephone contact with the child(ren). Each parent shall supply the other parent with current telephone numbers, where the child(ren) may be found or is/are staying.

Not necessary at this time.

Mail & Email Contact. Each parent with whom the child(ren) is not then living should have unlimited ability to contact each other by use of either regular United States mail or electronic mail, if such an account is available. The parent seeking mail contact must provide self-addressed stamped envelopes for the child(ren) to use. If available, current e-mail addresses where the child(ren) may be contacted shall be supplied to both parents by each parent. Where possible, reasonable computer access shall be allowed.

Not necessary at this time.
